

Career Decisions in a Challenging World

Present

Spring 2012 Career Institute

Friday, February 10th &
Saturday, 11th 2012

Two days of career workshops and presentations for career professionals and those interested in learning about career development. One day will focus on the Cognitive Information Processing (CIP).

FEATURED PRESENTERS

Dr. Sampson, Dr. Reardon,

Dr. Peterson, Dr. Lenz

Florida State University

OTHER PRESENTERS

Dr. Carlos Zalaquett,
Career and Mental Health

Dr. Stephanie Rodriguez
Career and Spirituality

Hosted by:

UF Career Resource Center

University of Florida

First Floor J. Wayne Reitz Union

Gainesville, FL 32611-8507

Spring 2012 Career Institute

The Florida Career Development Association presents the Spring 2012 Career Institute. A two day event to bring those interested in career development together to learn and network.

Open to those interested in career development from school counselors, private practitioners and college professionals.

Day 1: Presentations on Cognitive Information Processing from Dr. Sampson, Dr. Reardon, Dr. Peterson, & Dr. Lenz Florida State University

Day 2: Selected presentations from professionals in career development.

The Institute will be held at the UF Career Resource Center, on the campus of the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL. Please review registration form for prices. Please visit FCA website for more information forms and instructions at www.flacounseling.org/

For more information: contact Jon Schlesinger jonschlesinger@crc.ufl.edu or ldames@mail.usf.edu