Dear FCA Members,
Welcome to Summer! And what an interesting summer we had this year with so much going on locally, nationally, and globally! I think it is relatively safe to say that this is a summer like no other with everything from COVID-19, to a modern-day social justice movement for racial equality, equity, fairness, compassion, laws, ethics, and everything in between. Yet, we still have our everyday lives consisting of personal and professional responsibilities. But thankfully, we made it through this summer and year so far! As I mentioned in my spring newsletter, I hope you are taking the time to care for yourself so that you can be your very best as you pour into other people and projects. I want to provide just a few updates and reminders regarding FCA.

The entire leadership team, including the FCA and Division Executive Boards, FCA Committee Chairs, Region Representatives, Committee Members, and Vickie, our fantastic Office Manager, have been working hard to give you what you need via your membership benefits. You will learn about these hardworking leaders in this newsletter. You can also check out their Professional Profile cards found here on our newly updated and improved website that the technology committee has been working hard on. Due to the global shift in the way we live, work, and play because of COVID-19, our dedicated convention committee has been working hard to bring you a fabulous virtual convention. Stay tuned for details on that. The FCA Professional Development, Technology, Public Awareness, and Human Rights Committees and the FCA Divisions are also working hard to virtually bring you quality professional development training throughout this fiscal year. I have also added a series of social justice-oriented panel-style webinars as a part of my Presidential Initiative that falls in line with our theme for this year, which is: 2020 Vision: Obtaining Ethical Clarity in Counseling. As we know, our professional code of ethics calls for us to be advocates for our profession, clients, and communities in need. We kicked off the social justice webinar series with the following in July for Minority Mental Health Month: “Discussing Racism and Racial Trauma in Clinical Supervision” on July 27th and “I’m Tired: Defining, Assessing, and Addressing Racial Battle Fatigue” on July 30th. Stay tuned for the other webinars in this series in the coming months on a variety of topics that fall under our division specialty areas that will address some of the intersections that we and those we know and serve face.

Please know that you can always reach out to me via email at drlbjfca@gmail.com if I may be of service to you or if you have any suggestions, questions, or concerns about FCA and how we can strive to meet your needs and keep the association moving forward. Thank you for all that you do! Please do whatever you can to stay safe and healthy medically, emotionally, spiritually, and holistically.

Yours Truly,

Letitia Browne-James, Ph.D., LMHC-S, NCC, FCA President 2019-2021
